Rabbi Mordechai Shmueli – Laws of Cooking on Shabbos

Our Sisterhood invites all women to the 2nd of a 3-part series on the Laws of Cooking for Shabbos. The 2nd session will be this Wednesday evening, January 16th, in the Joseph Moskowitz Bais Medrash from 8:00 pm – 8:45 pm.

Kiddush Sponsorships

We are very proud of our Shabbos Kiddushim. It serves as a wonderful forum for developing achdus- unity among our members and guests. In order to continue this beautiful tradition, we ask that every member sponsor or co-sponsor a Kiddush at least one Shabbos per year. It can be in honor of a birthday, anniversary, yahrtzeit, or just because.

Please contact Susan Baum at baumsusan@sbcglobal.net to reserve a date for your Kiddush.

We Appreciate

We express our gratitude to Dr. Toby Grossman for being in charge and the point person for our Shul calendar for the past 5 years. Her dedication and organizational skills enabled our Shul Kiddushim to dovetail so smoothly.

We thank Susan Baum for taking the reins of this important role.

Save the Date- Scholar in Residence- Rabbi Daniel Mechanic – February 1st & 2nd

We are happy to announce that Rabbi Daniel Mechanic will be our Scholar-in-Residence, Friday, February 1st, and Shabbos February 2. His lectures and presentations have inspired his listeners around the world. A program of his topics and times will follow.

Rabbi Daniel Mechanic Short Bio

Rabbi Daniel Mechanic, founder and director of Project Chazon, is a sensational, dynamic and sought after speaker for adults and teens alike. His emotionally powerful and inspiring sessions address the issue of winning our hearts and minds to the truth and beauty of Yiddishkeit. His cutting-edge presentations about family life, parenting, chinuch, and contemporary issues have challenged and inspired thousands of people. He has been a guest lecturer at many major conventions and dinners throughout North America and has served as a scholar-in-residence at Shuls and Pesach programs throughout the country.

Additionally, Rabbi Mechanic is a world-renowned lecturer on topics related to Kiruv Rechokim, and is also recognized throughout the Orthodox Jewish world as an authority on the "at-risk" teen phenomenon. After 12 years of study at Yeshiva Kol Torah, Yeshiva Gedolah of Passaic, and Yeshiva Torah Vodaas, Rabbi Mechanic began working for Rabbi Noach Weinberg ZT"L. Trained by Aish HaTorah, he spent the next 15 years working as the Director of Discovery, where he presented hundreds of seminars and inspired thousands of unaffiliated and secular Jews.

In 1996, Rabbi Mechanic decided to assist the Yeshivos and Day Schools in reinforcing and strengthening the Yiddishkeit of their students. Through Project Chazon, he began to present comprehensive Hashkafah seminars to teenagers and their teachers throughout the United States, Canada, and England. His fascinating Shiurim are presented in over 410 schools, with the endorsement of leading Gedolim, Roshei Yeshiva, and Principals worldwide. His informative and unique programs have strengthened and inspired for over 310,000 students of all ages. Rabbi Mechanic also provides individual counseling and mentoring to hundreds of young men and women.

Ordained by Rav Avraham Pam, ZT"L at Yeshiva Torah Vodaath, Rabbi Mechanic resides in Brooklyn with his wife and five children.
